Dear Mr. Marshall M. Wheelock:

Greetings. This letter is response to your letter dated September 8, 2006. I will be as sincere and plain as I humanly know how to be, both in tact and in effectual communication; however, given the blatant evasiveness experienced so far concerning issues fundamental, even elementary, I regret the offences that may come from my being frank. We've both received the same basic education in America, so let us be mature.

Simplicity in Christian teachings gives the Royal Law: "Love thy neighbor as thyself.", and "Woe unto them who call evil good and good evil"! Please understand that not everyone's heritage and culture is oppression through "death and taxes" of which is the making of man, and surely is not a laughing matter. "The power to tax involves the power to destroy." 5 -McCullock v Maryland, 4 Wheaton 316; Crandall v Nevada, 6 Wall 35, 46. The Revolution prior to America's formation was clearly because of usurpation and tyranny by the governing authorities. Be not one who is always hearing, but "The battle is the Lord's..." 1 SAMUEL 17:47.

"When you go into battle in your own land against an enemy who is oppressing you, sound a blast on the trumpets." NUMBERS 10:9

never understanding, always seeing, but never perceiving. The enclosed article (“A”) State of the State ought to clue you that there exist severe problems within the State that have daily harmful effect on the multitudes of families. Even William Sorrell, State Attorney, admits that there is corruption within the State, but has chosen not to act upon one single case....Hmmm... what are men of any intelligence suppose to think who have the knowledge of government de facto versus government de jure? Does not legitimate government love its own people, and exist to protect people not to destroy? Does not legitimate government have the ability to answer questions? I am clearly for peace, but you, if you persist in your wrongful methods of criminal coercion, are for war should you unlawfully reject the “Rule of Law”. The adhering to the Rule of Law is an imperative for peace as determined by the United Nations, and by those societies who avoid collapse from anarchy. Your letter clearly indicated that you visited my website (www.tommillington.com), yet you chose not to notice anything but what your constricted agenda would gain you and your administration monetarily. The common citizen has no complaints against me, but the State of Vermont? See enclosure “B”.

February 25, 2002		 Charles Mercieca Ph.D Professor Emeritus Alabama A&amp;M University

Human Rights Violations in the USA:

“Of all the nations of the world, the United States is perhaps the most vocal against human rights violations. Yet, this nation has increasingly become a great violator of human rights in recent decades. Most Americans are not aware of this because they keep busy with plenty of work just to make ends meet. Besides, they are unable to know what is going on since all major news media is controlled by big industries headed by the weapons industrial complex. It is not in the interest of big industries to expose their methods of people’s exploitation and the great suffering they inflict in the world at large.” ... “When a nation becomes powerful that does not mean that such a nation could do what it likes. Everything must be done with deep respect in accordance with laws of higher order. I am referring here to the divine positive law, natural law and the ecclesiastical law. The divine positive law consists of the Ten Commandments we find in the Bible, which are found in virtually every religion conceivable.” -Charles Mercieca Ph.D, President of the United Nations World Peace Academy. I am contact with Mr. Mercieca.

The State of Vermont, for which you are a servant (subordinate), is not exempt from compliance of higher law as is the case with United States Federal Law, United Nations International Law, and Moral Law. It is neither your rightful place to dictate to other people for what purpose they exist, nor is your rightful place to dictate to other people to which government they must worship (practice). Neither are you or your administration free to be an unaccountable island unto yourself. There is much "law" on the books in Vermont that is in fact unconstitutional and colorable -- "That which is in appearance only, and not in reality, what it purports (claims) to be, hence counterfeit, feigned, having the appearance of truth." All of this being said to say that you are not free to exploit or enslave people who differ from your ideals. Are you sure you want to follow the path of these evil men? Their eternal end is not pleasant.

Do you think people whole heartedly give their respect and allegiance to the likes of Kim Jong II? (See enclosure "C"). Robert Muller, a former Assistant Secretary-General of the United Nations, has publicly stated: "In the battle between forces of good and evil (emphasis added) on this planet, no one can be neutral, you want to take sides." The late Pope John Paul II at one time had placed the very necklace adorning his neck onto the neck of Mr. Muller. (See enclosure "D")

On August 14, 2006 your colleague, Jay Knable, came to visit me at a private residence not my own to make an attempt to "examine" my personal information. What started out as an amicable and cordial meeting, quickly failed into dissension when simply conveying to him that I did not exist to be further exploited (have to collect use tax like it or not by the very State who forcefully destroyed my sacred marriage, and stole my dedicated Christian Home- by a traffic court magistrate)! Our conversation was relatively brief, and, unfortunately, Mr. Wheelock left with animosity suggesting he might be back with the police! Mr. Knable confidently affirmed when visiting me on August 14 that the State of Vermont is secular. This is a serious issue to discuss given the historic fact that a secular State exists "When the government and legal system is separated from control of the priests or the religious establishment. The state's values are based on systems not overtly drawn from religious examples...Communist States are secular." {DK, The Book of Rule ISBN 0-7894-9354-3}

Please take notice of the Legal definition of immunity: "Exemption, as from serving in an office, or performing duties which the law generally requires other citizens to perform; e.g. exemption from paying taxes."

I'm not forcing Christianity upon you as you are forcing secularism (communism/socialism) upon me. In fact, you have to your own shame made evident your disdain for me as a person, and for me as an Ambassador and Educator of World Peace who is truly actively working to strengthen Native Indians, the Nation Israel, and mostly the common person. If you really desire to be taken as legitimate rather than for coercion (government by force) fraud and corrupt, it would befit your intellect to answer a few questions. To save redundancy, I have included a copy of the letter given your colleague Jay Knable, who evidently was inept.

Is it not a little ridiculous and embarrassing to you how in America where there exists rich history and plentiful education available to all, a lack to grasp unchangeable facts in unity? Are not we a well informed and blessed people here in America under a known God? Is it that impossible to understand true freedom and vested rights, or is all vanity?

Acquaintance Dr. William Mathis, Superintendent of Schools, [see excerpts of letter "E" enclosed] can confirm the use of the book Rise of the American Nation at our local Otter Valley Union High School which taught clearly that "Fascism [is] a system of government concentrating all political, economic, and cultural power in the state." ... "In totalitarian systems, individuals existed to serve the state and had no rights except those that the state chose to give them. All of the dictatorships glorified force (emphasis added). Compelling the people to work for 'bullets rather than butter,' they converted their industries to war production." Here is some other public knowledge:

a). The late Pope John Paul II was quoted: "If Christ were to have remained a prisoner in the tomb, humanity and all of creation, in a certain way, would have lost their meaning. But you, Christ, are truly risen." -Burlington Free Press (Vermont, USA), April 20, 2003. ... The late Pope John Paul II was quoted saying, "[that he] loathed totalitarianism- 'substitute religion.'" -Rutland Herald, 4-3-2005

Terrorism Digest

terrorism- the use of violence and threats to intimidate or coerce, especially for political purposes.

***totalitarian***- of or pertaining to a centralized government in which those in control grant neither recognition nor tolerance to parties of differing opinion; an adherent of totalitarian principles. Syn. arbitrary, oppressive, tyrannical.

coercion- the act of coercing; exercise of force to obtain compliance. Force or the power to use force in gaining compliance. Government by force.

fascism- a totalitarian governmental system led by a dictator and emphasizing aggressive nationalism, militarism, and often racism.

Anti-Christ- an opponent of Christ; a false Christ.

Godless- acknowledging no god; atheistic; evil; sinful.

Hypocrisy- the professing of publicly approved qualities, beliefs, or feelings that one does not really possess.

persecution- a program or campaign to exterminate, drive away, or subjugate a people because of their religious, ethical, or moral beliefs or practices.

Surely I have given you plenty to think about. All I ask of you is to state in a letter that you will respect my Christian beliefs as even the Vermont Constitution affords in Article 3 [Freedom of religion; right and duty of religious worship.]

Sincerely in Christ Jesus,

Thomas H. Millington, Ambassador II Cor.5:20
Ambassador to Jerusalem, and Ambassador of Algonquin Wabanaki Sovereign Nation
